IMAGES OF

A yearbook is put together for certain reasons. One of those reasons is to capture the fun and excitement of the school year, such as the activities, which includes basketball, baseball, track and cross country. The yearbook is also meant to give you everlasting memories of your friends that can be cherished for the rest of a lifetime. Some of these memories may be good, and some may be bad, but no matter what, this can be a keepsake forever. In 10 years from now, you can always look back and remember all of those crazy things you did with your friends throughout high school.

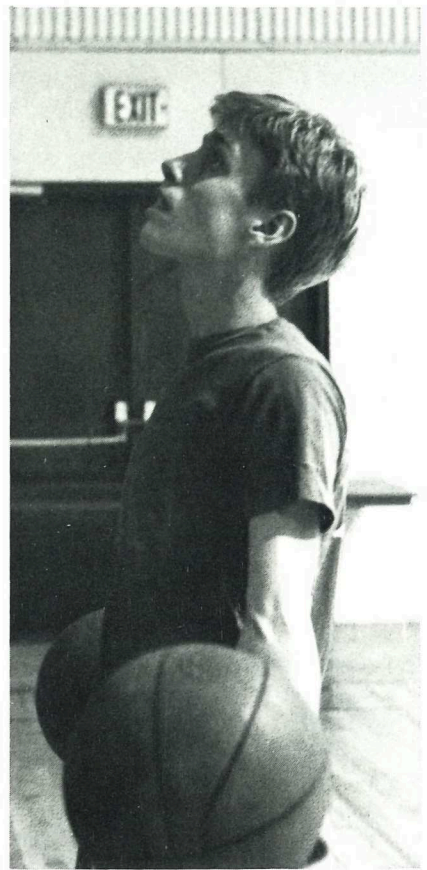

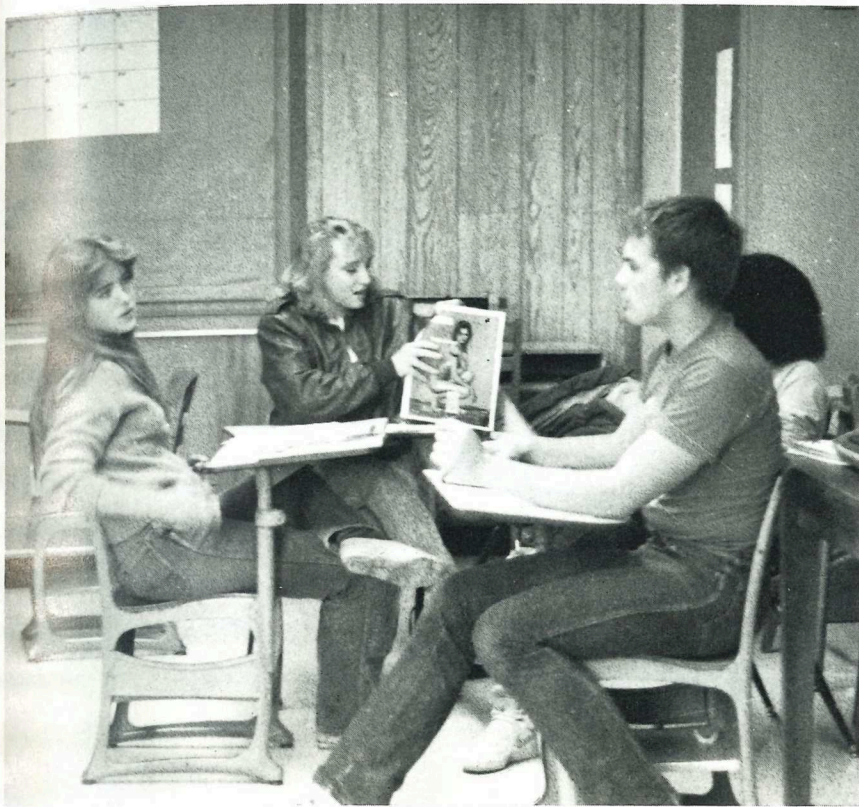

We complain as students about homework and having to clean up our room at home, but what are we going to do once we get out on our own? Do not rush your high school days, because once they're gone, they're gone. Think about it — you get smarter everyday. Make each high school year a year to REMEMBER!!!!!!!!!!!!

Kim Shaffer, Yearbook Editor

As we all travel throughout our lives we will hold certain high school memories close to our hearts whether they be tender, funny, or sad. These memories can never be relived again but they will always be vividly implanted in our minds.

The following is a compilation of memories taken from W/C/H/S students. Whether these memories bring smiles or tears, they will all be protected by our recollections. Remember North's tights? Horsehead? Stove hunts? Getting class rings? Prom? Monday morning hangovers?

Crazy Days

There are days when we wake up and just feel like painting the world purple. Those are the days in which silly things happen, faces are made, and giggles are uncontrollable. These such days are entitled CRAZY DAYS. How many have you had? How many are yet to come? Are they good or bad? Only you will ever know!!!

"Any minute now."

"Madonna and her groupies."

"Just plain gross!!"

"Legs, they know how to use them!"

DEDICATION TO . . .

Tonia Jean Brakensiek
April 1, 1968-November 24, 1985

This is a eulogy prepared by the senior class in memory of Tonia.

"We students feel privileged to have shared part of our lives with Tonia. Being with her left a feeling of warmth and comfort with so many of us. Many were touched by her generous attitude toward others.

Tonia's cheerful nature, along with her genuine smile, changed our darker days into brighter ones.

Unity meant a great deal to Tonia. The role of peace-maker came naturally for her.

Asking nothing in return, her love and affection flowed freely. When work needed to be done, Tonia, without hesitation, volunteered all of her energy in accomplishing the task. We will always remember her in this way."

Look Ahead To The Future

Being classified as a Junior leads each eleventh grade student to look into the future. Juniors have much responsibility in organizing and sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom. This is also the time when each individual has the opportunity to show off their school spirit by buying a Senior Class ring to represent their alma mater. After these tasks are accomplished, these students look forward to having only one more year left to graduate.

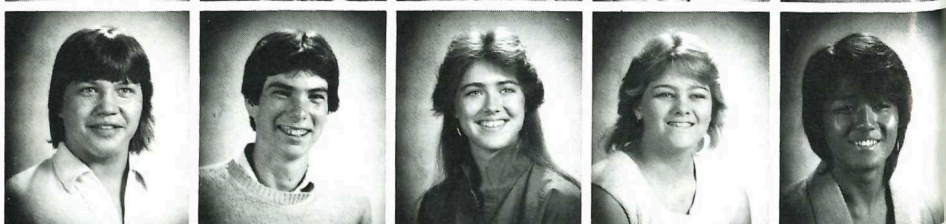

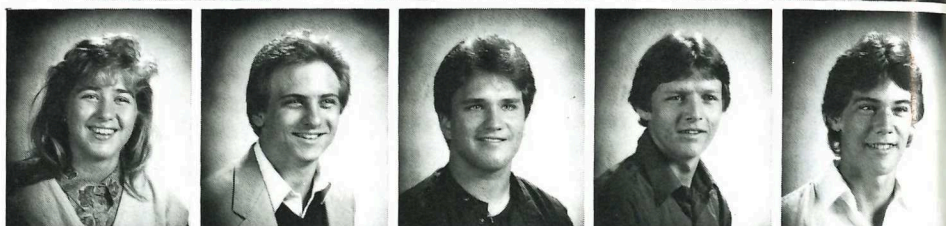

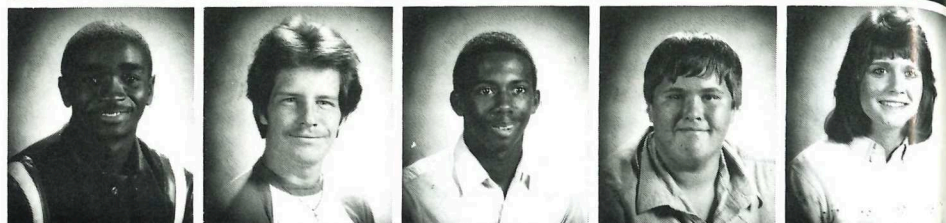

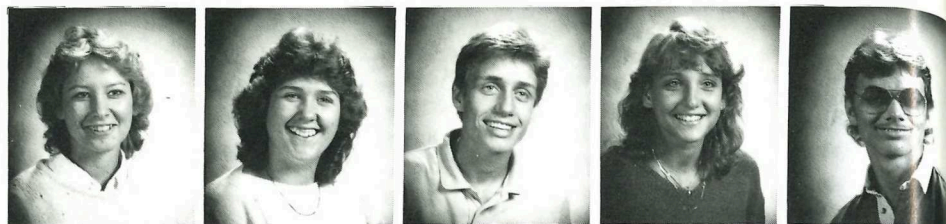

"Being a junior has been very challenging. You have plenty of school work to keep you busy, plus you have to start thinking about your future," shares Julie Vance.

"Being a Junior has been very very fun so far because I hardly ever have any homework, and being a Junior also gets you to start thinking about your future goals," Chloe Talley comments.

"Being a Junior is great. I have a lot of fun in my classes. I hope all the Juniors have a terrific year," states Tami Lane.

Sophomores Moving Ahead

Being a Sophomore is an experience. They are in the middle of an exciting and a fulfilling year. No longer freshmen, the sophomores are starting to experience the challenges of life. Being able to drive and work is the high point of many sophomores.

Anthony Mozee comments, "It is fascinating and there is a lot more interesting things available to do than when I was a freshman."

Tricia Dixon states, "It is fun because I know I am half-way done with high school and I really like our class."

Shelly Drake adds, "Being a sophomore is a new and wild experience everyday."

Being a freshman means more than just another year of school. It means you are eligible to attend high school dances, able to participate in high school sports, and to join clubs.

This year's freshman officers are President, Davon Turner; Vice President, Gina Blanks; Secretary, Kim Johnson; Treasurer, Suzie McBride; Student council Rep., Kelly Blanchard. Class Sponsors are Mrs. Schellman and Mrs. Wobbe.

"I enjoyed working with the freshman class. They work hard together to achieve their goals. They are a very enthusiastic bunch of kids," Mrs. Wobbe stated. And Mrs. Schellman added, "They worked hard decorating for Halloween."

EIGHTH GRADE

Stepping Towards The Future

The eighth grade class has two major responsibilities, promotion and planning their class trip.

The 1985-86 class officers are: Adam Heiliger-president, Bryan Martin-vice president, Brett Rupp-secretary, Robie Lucas-parliamentarian.

"I am very honored to be president of the eighth grade," stated Adam Heiliger.

"I like being in eighth grade because it is my last year in junior high and next year I'll be in high school," expressed Mary Buene-man.

"It is fun to be an eighth grade sponsor because we work on eighth grade promotion and a class trip. The eighth grade class is a super class to work with and is a very exceptional class," commented Pat Turner, eighth grade sponsor.

This class is very anxious for eighth grade promotion and to make their big step into high school.

FACULTY

NEW FACULTY, NEW START

With the combining of the new and old faculty this year, we experienced a merger of the faculty, students, and administration. Many teachers, who began their careers at Wright City High found themselves in the midst of new teachers, friends, and a totally new aspect of their profession.

Some students favor the new teachers and others don't but part of the teenage and high school years is learning to deal with changes.

Any teacher who remained at Wright City after the "division of 85"" also may have felt uncomfortable this year. Having many teachers and other faculty members gone, friends and friendships were lost. But the faculty has combined as smoothly as the student body.

It takes many special qualities to become a good teacher. Wright City has been given some special people with their own unique qualities. The possessed qualities of patience, sensitivity, and the willingness to work and compromise are the qualities that will help to solve the problems of the students, faculty, and administration. The newly joined faculty is special in the fact that they are willing to be our friends, yet they know they have to be our teachers first. This is the faculty that will aid us in reaching our goals and striving for our dreams.

We are rebuilding for the future on a new foundation, and there will be new friends made and new friendships formed, as we get acquainted with our new faculty.

WRIGHT CITY STAFF . . .

Jerry poses for the photographer.

"Who's the boss here?"

Ed takes a moment to relax.

The custodians, Ed Bohler and Jerry Henderson, do a fine job of keeping our school clean and attractive to the students and visitors. When asked how he liked his job, our trusted companion gave this reply: "Knowing all the kids, enjoying their company, and being able to come to school everyday to find something new is why I like my job at WCHS."

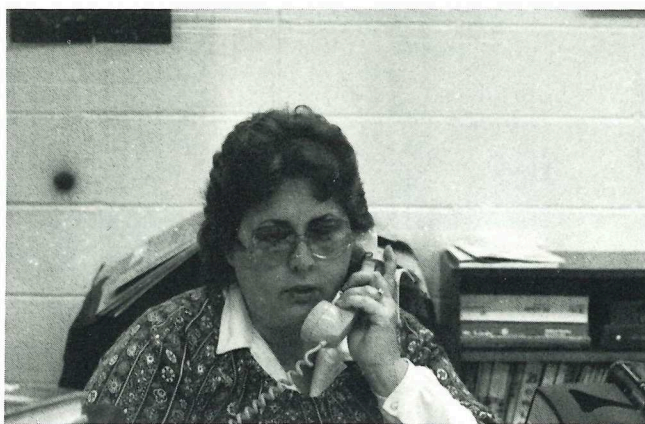

Another branch that helps our school system function better is the bus drivers. Through rain, sleet, snow, ice, or sunshine they do not fail to get the students to WCHS. They even devote their time to drive us to athletic events and field trips.

AT WORK.

The secretaries, Billie Arnett and Lila Brandes can usually be found hard at work in the office. They help with the phone lines and paperwork that constantly flows throughout the office. They also have to listen to all the complaints that people whine about all the time.

"I enjoy the exposure to the students and the people I work with. I am also crazy enough to like my job," states Billie Arnett.

The life of a cook at WCHS is not an easy one. How many women do you know who can serve 350 hot lunches, dodge flying food and answer harrassing questions about where the food actually came from?

"It is an organization where students learn computer skills while creating games," stated Mrs. Kupferer.

They usually meet once a week.

"I think it is very interesting because we are learning to work with computers and learning how to write programs," stated Antya Gilson.

Do you ever wonder where that beautiful music at home basketball games comes from? It comes from our very talented school group known as the Pep Band.

This particular band performs at all of the home games. These rhythmic tunes encourage all the students and fans to get into the spirit and to cheer our team to victory. Mr. Blackmore comments, "No greater fans anywhere. This is where everyone lets it all hang out and supports the Wildcats. This mixture of all band musicians can raise the gym roof."

PEP CLUB CHEERS ON CATS

Pep Club was very small this year but when everyone showed up to cheer on the game they were a rowdy and enthusiastic group.

Mr. Phiropoulos was the pep club sponsor. He was very supportive of the group and wishes more people would join and participate.

For a fund raiser, pep club sold pretzels and candy at all home games. The sales helped make money for the activities they had throughout the year.

This year's president is Vicki Ball, "Being president has been a great experience. I enjoy working with the other students and cheering on the games."

"I like being in pep club to help cheer on the basketball teams," comments Tricia Dixon.

Mass Media and publications is a class made up of some very determined, talented, and CRAZY people. Many hours are spent pouring over layouts, body copy, and photos before the final polished copies are laid before your very eyes. As decisions are pondered over and judgements are made, we are always trying to produce the yearbook which will serve as the most suitable keepsake of the happy memories of your friends and years at Wright City High.

Our number one priority is producing a yearbook that you will be proud of. We hope that in the future you will be able to venture years back into the past by spending twenty minutes flipping through your 1986 yearbook.

For the yearbook staff, at many times, there came moments of frustration, boredom, and just the total will to give up. But with the help, support, and pep talks of our advisor, Mrs. Hunter, and our editor and co-editor, Kim Shaffer and Jenny Couchman, we came through it all with shining and glorious moments.

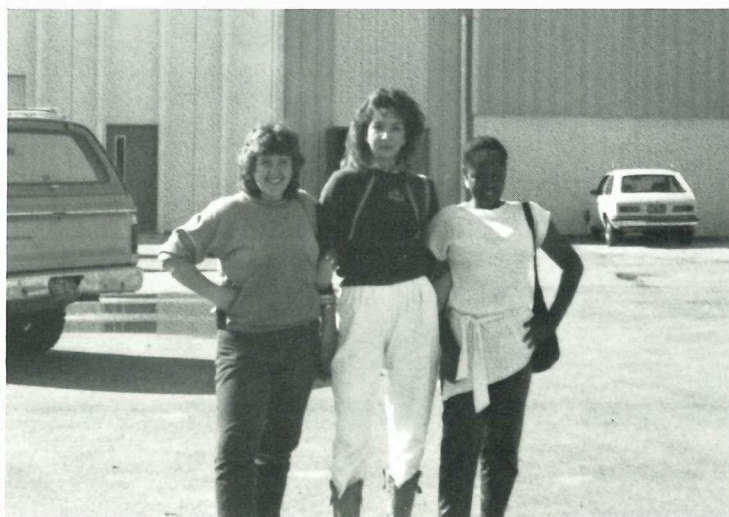

We would all like to thank Mrs. Hunter, Kim and Jenny for all their hard work and patience throughout the year. We would also like to wish the Senior class very much luck and happiness in the future.

The Four Rivers Area Vocational-Technical School at Washington, Missouri is attended by seven juniors and seniors from Wright City. They attend courses such as Building Trades, Auto Body, Auto Mechanics, Welding, and Health Occupations. These classes are not offered at Wright City.

Two year programs allow students not only to work in the classroom but in an on-the-job situation. Houses are built from scratch by the building trade students and later sold by the school.

The program was started because of the demand for skilled workers in the working world. It is a very beneficial program because students can start working immediately after leaving school.

"The Student Council is where it's at. They've got spirit, they've got enthusiasm, and best of all, they've got me as a moderator," stated Mrs. Stephens.

IT TAKES A LITTLE MORE

One of the most important aspects of any basketball game or pep rally is the cheerleader. She is the one who leaves all her problems outside the gym, plants that winning smile on her face, and gets everyone psyched up for the upcoming event. Many hours are spent practicing to achieve the unity they present to their audiences. The acquisition of new uniforms added to their polish.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Sandy Phiroopoulos, the sponsor, for the patience and support she has given to the girls.

Added to last year's members of Julie Vance and Tammy Pauk, there are three new members; Kim Shaffer, Denise Vester, and Jennifer Garner. Even after the tragic loss of the team's Captain, Tonia Brakensiek, the squad managed to pull together and keep up their winning attitude. Much credit is due to this squad for their ability to overcome the odds and come out the winners. They have definitely proven that they know the definition of teamwork!!!

Coach Kelly commented on the success of the Junior Varsity team, "I think our (JV) team this year was very successful. Success in our J.V. team means player improvement. I feel these guys are better ball players than they were 4 months ago ... They are capable of being successful."

Although the team's record was 9-12, most felt the team was very successful and had a lot of potential to become a great team. Roger Sears had this to say, "We ended the season really well. But, we had our ups and downs. I think it was a lot better than previous J.V. seasons."

The J.V. is definitely destined for bigger and better things. We wish them luck in their move up to Varsity Basketball next year.

"I thought I wanted the season to end, now I'm not so sure. It was a rough season but I enjoyed it."

Danny Halcomb "42"

The preceeding is a quote taken from one of the players for the Wildcats after the end of the season. The 85-86 season served as a learning experience for our guys. It was a season, as all others, of glorious victories and crushing defeats. But through it all, the Cats never gave up. They were always in there fighting every step of the way. The players struggled through rough practices from 2:30 to 4:30 everyday. At times the season looked dismal, but the team never gave up on us and we never gave up on them. With that combination no matter what the end results were, there was still that team effort, and that makes it all worth it.

"Basketball was really rough this year but it was still fun. I'm glad coach was able to make it through this season, too. A lot of credit goes to coach."

Loren Stevens "34"

Coach Gerdeman was the thinking and planning factor behind this years team. This year was undoubtedly no different, for him, as the years before with many hours spent training, teaching, and preparing his team for their future competition. When asked about the season, Coach had this to say, "The players should feel comfortable with the progress they made this season."

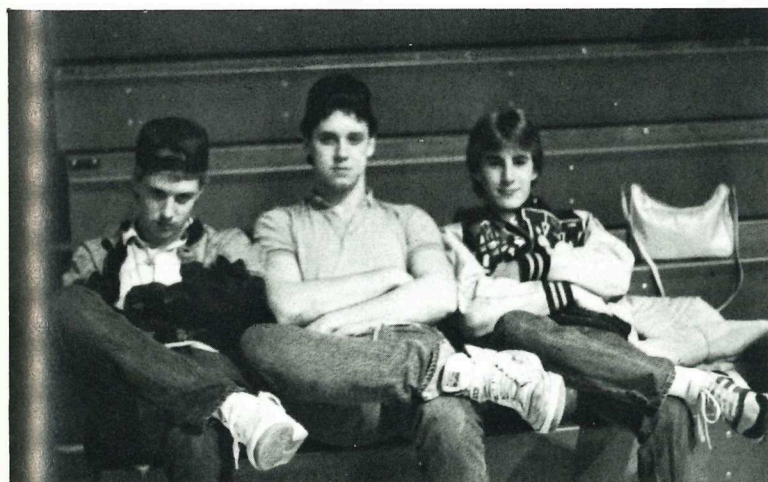

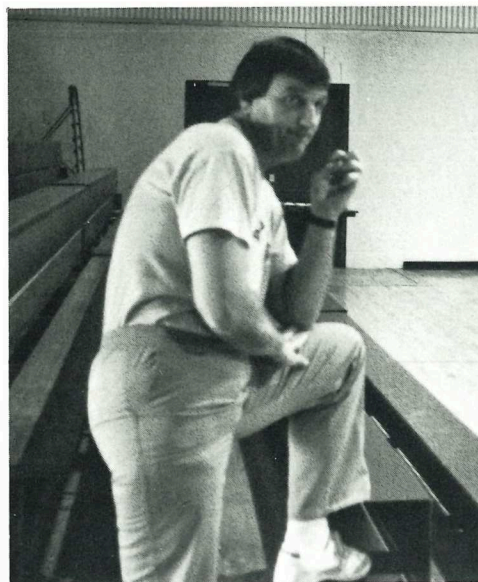

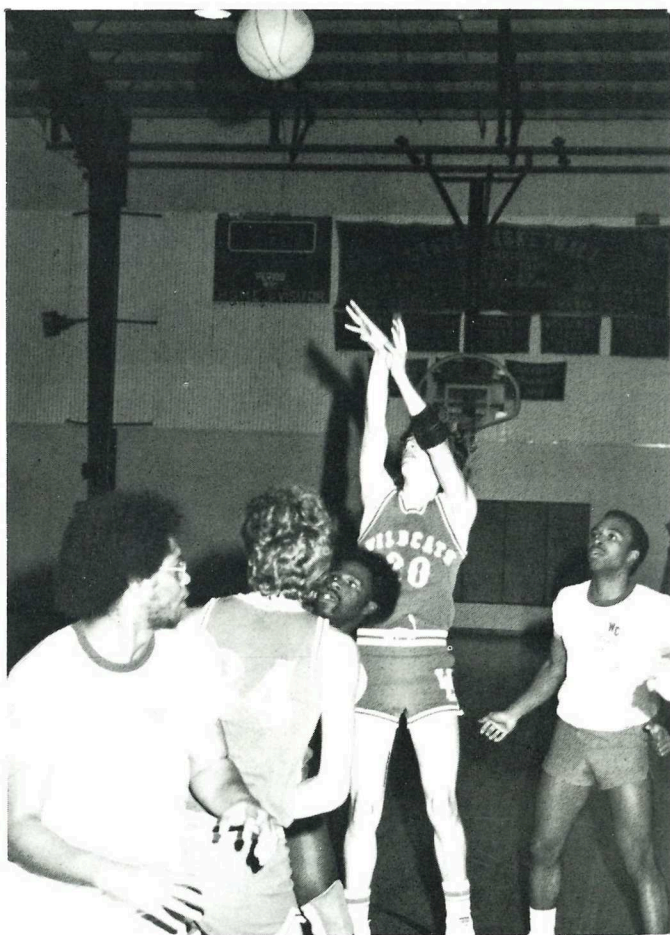

This year's team had only one playing senior. When asked about the season he had this to say, "It was a very enjoyable season. I wish it would have ended on a better note."

Jeff North "20"

The basketballs and uniforms may sit dormant until the next season, but the 85-86 season will always be alive in our memories. Thanks from everyone go to Coach for his dedication and hard work.

== GIRLS BASKETBALL ==

The 1986 Girls Basketball season was a learning experience. We worked hard on perfecting our fundamentals. Fundamentals are the basis of a strong sound basketball team. All the players will be returning for the 1986-87 season. They will bring with them one more year of experience. We had a good year, finishing with a 13-12 record at the Varsity level and a 14-2 record at the Junior Varsity level. The team has a lot of room to grow. The potential is there. It has to be developed through hard work, dedication and desire," stated Coach Sue Wright.

"This season was my best season yet. I think we are all quite happy with the turn out. We worked hard as a team and, considering the lack of Varsity experience, we did very well," commented Amy Hill.

Suzanne Sears stated, "I think we are all proud of accomplishing our goal of having a winning season. We all practiced hard and are looking forward to next year's season. We are very satisfied with this year's turnout."

Robyn Massey added, "I felt that I, along with the whole team, have improved a lot this year. I'm really proud of our record. I enjoy basketball and I'm going to miss it during the off-season."

== A NIGHT FOR LOVE ==

On Saturday, February 15, the Annual Sweetheart Dance was held at the high school cafeteria, which was sponsored by the sophomore class. The source of entertainment was provided by Reflexion. The dance was held from 8 to 11.

This year's queen candidates and their escorts were: SENIORS- Denise Vester and Ron Diebold; JUNIORS- Suzanne Sears and Atsushi Tsumori; SOPHOMORES Vicki Smith and Tracy Brakensiek; FRESHMAN - Kim Rhine and Kelly Blanchard. The winning queen and king were Denise Vester and Atsushi Tsumori. Congratulations to both of you!!

"I thought it was fun and it seemed like other people had a good time too," stated Tricia Dixon.

PARADE

The Seniors had Christmas trees and Wee-Wee in jammies. The Juniors had Rudolph and Halc in a brown nose. The Sophomores had seasons and the "Santa Claus Rap." Computer Club had their Apple, and Girls Varsity had the Globtrotteretts. What is this madness, you ask? Homecoming Parade 1985!

Homecoming 1985 was a week that will be long remembered by the students of Wright City High. The whole student body showed an abundance of spirit and enthusiasm and made it a great week.

Throughout the entire week and the weeks before, clubs and classes began to organize floats for the Homecoming parade. This year's theme was, "Fantasies". The Sophomores seemed to convey this message the best, receiving first place in the float contest. The Seniors took second place and the Juniors followed in third.

For many of the Seniors, this week served as the realization that this is their last year, and their last high school homecoming. These people, the Seniors of today, are the ones that will return as the alumni of tomorrow — the adults of tomorrow.

Cheers to all and to all a good night!!!

CROWNING

A hush fell over the crowd as Mr. Jones approached the microphone. Why you ask? Because it is December 14, it is 7:00 and it is the long awaited Homecoming night. He is about to announce the Homecoming Queen for 1985. The candidates are: Seniors; Kim Shaffer and Brad Rupp; Denise Vester and Bruce McLaughlin; Juniors; Tammy Pauk and Danny Halcomb; Michelle Sylvester and Loren Stevens. The attendants are, Sophomores, Kristen Heying and Tracy Brakensiek, and Freshmen; Tammy Nelson and Mike Stude.

As the girls trembled from nervousness and the guys tried to be "cool", (they get nervous too, ya know,) the moment seems to last forever. Finally, the announcement is made. The 1985 Homecoming Queen is . . . Kim Shaffer, and her escort is Brad Rupp. They were crowned by the retiring Queen, Melissa Boyd, and her escort, Jeff North.

Homecoming is a tradition that is respected and carried on from year to year. It is a time for old friends to come home and new ones to enter. It is an evening to reflect on old memories and to make new ones. This is the night for laughs, jokes, and fun with friends, may they be old or new. Homecoming is a night that lasts a lifetime in your memories.

We would also like to send our congratulations to Kim and Brad on their "royal" win.

GAME

"What a way to start the game," stated Jeff.

As the new Queen and her court took their places among many other spectators, the scene changed to one of total seriousness. It was time for the game to begin. As our players were briefed on the plays, the pep club tried to arouse the electricity of the spectators in order to show the players that everyone was pulling for them — win, lose, or draw. The cheerleaders screamed and carried on until they could hardly move, until the dance at least, and the crowd and many others cheered for their team to pull off the victory. In the end, it was the Wildcats varsity team that swept the victory from the alumni team. In the earlier girls game, they were defeated by 2 points after a long struggle. Better luck next time girls. All in all, everyone kept up their end of the bargain, whether they were cheering, getting everyone else to cheer, or playing. It was a game to be proud of. Coach Gerdeman stated that, "It was a festive time for all and it was an enjoyable game." Miss Wright also had this to say about her girls, "I felt we played well for the beginning of the season. It was tough losing by only two." The final score in the girls game was 40 to 42. Jeff North, the only Senior participating in Basketball this year, had this to say about the game, "It was an annual game that tested our playing skills against players of past years." This was the year that we definitely proved that we can stand up to the players of the past.

HOME COMING

Before the long awaited dance there was much to be prepared. The Student Council decorated the Elementary Gym and tried to make everything perfect for the arrival of their new King and Queen. Another very important preparation before this traditional event was the work the D.J.'s did for the most important aspect of the entire part of the evening. This consisted of the choosing and recording of the music that everyone would rock to that evening. The D.J.'s consisted of, the main D.J., Tim McDaniel and his assistants, Jeff North, Kelly Blanchard, and Chris Figura. We would like to send our thanks to these four for their many hours of work toward making this Homecoming Dance one of the best. The evening was one to be remembered long into the future and a few students commented on that fact:

Chris Figura stated that, "It was very wild when Matt Ruge and Veronica Bartold got up and started singing over a loud speaker to every song." Julie Vance had this to say, "It was a lot of fun and it was a good celebration after the game."

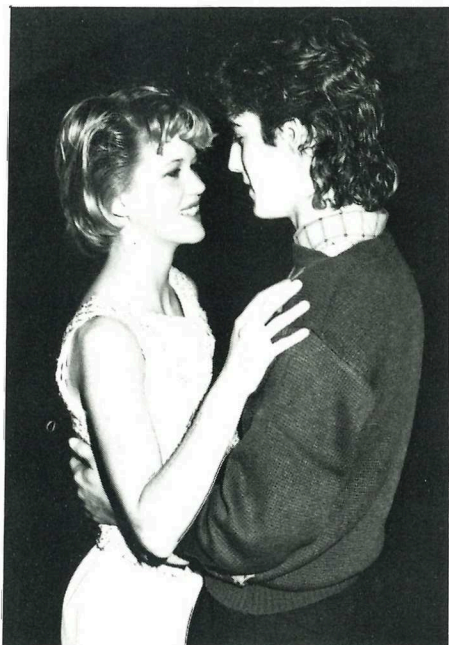

To add to the excitement, the Wildcats took off with the game with a score of 62 to 55. There was a great atmosphere to party to that night in Wright City High.

Teri and Chris enjoy the dance.
