Wright City High School presents... "Live In 2005." Come and watch this daring, fun, and fantastic movie. See how fast this school year flies by and all the friends that are made along the way.

In this movie, EVERYONE is a star! All of the Wright City students play their own role in making our school the way it is. Everyone is their own character who will be recognized in this stroll down memory lane. So, let's all stand, give a big round of applause, and welcome the students of Wright City High School in... "Live In 2005."

Spirit Week Homecoming 2004

By Jennifer Haley

Wright City wrapped up the football season with a fun week filled with spirit. The students showed off their school spirit by dressing up for pajama day, military day, beach day, Cardinal red day, and Blue and Gold day. The spirit week competition consisted of the dress up days, a banner made by each class, and of course the spirit games. In the end the seniors won the Spirit Football.

Strassenbash

Meet Me in Wright City

By Jennifer Haley and Tiffany Bruce

Strassenbash has been a Wright City tradition since 1982. Every year in September, people gather in Diekroeger Park to see familiar faces and activities. The Strassenbash includes the queen contest for the girls of Wright City. The 2004 queen was Ashley Hoff of St. Dominic High. Other activities included the track team's dunking booth, Chamber of Commerce booths, the parade with the school band, and other events. All of these things help the Strassenbash tradition going.

Frozen in Time...

Prom Court
By: Whitney Cox
all photos by Wagner

The 2005 Junior-Senior prom was held at Bear Creek Estates Lodge, on Saturday April 16. The theme for this year's prom was Frozen In Time, Melting in Mayones. Prom was and always will be a memorable night for everyone.

The juniors chose the top six seniors, three girls and three boys, for court. The gentlemen nominated for king were Jesse Chism, Adam Maschmidt, and Brandon Bishop. The ladies nominated for Queen were Monique Marschand, Tiffany Bruce, and Sarah Williams. The entire room fell silent in anticipation of who would be named 2005 Prom King and Queen. Junior Nikki Hahn announced, "And this year's King and Queen are ... Adam Maschmidt and Tiffany Bruce." Everyone clapped in excitement and congratulations for the two as returning King Nathan Rohr and returning Queen Kristen Kowalik crowned the couple. "Adam was so excited," said Adam's girlfriend Monica Eads. "He has always wanted to win prom King." Tiffany was very excited and happy, as well.

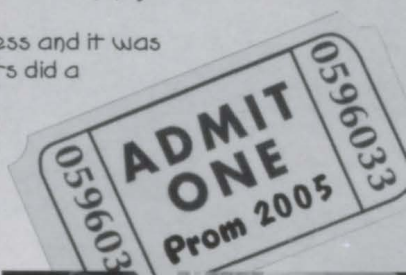

All in all, prom was success and it was fun for everyone. The juniors did a fantastic job!

Showing off her lunch lady equipment, Tonya gets ready for the onslaught of students arriving. Diane covers her back with a sweet smile and innocent laugh.

The bell rings, silence echoes through the hall for only a few more long seconds until it is broken by a herd of students flooding to the common destination of the cafeteria. Some sit down at their respective tables while others stand in line; some even go to other classrooms. This ritual is the awakening call of the brave warriors Diane Berube, Tonya Brassel, Denise Orr and their fearless leader Lynn Gueiner. They work diligently to provide students with the food they have so wonderfully cooked, smiling at the students and greeting them as they pass.

This years' lunch came with some changes. Some new items were introduced to the menu (Hot Pockets, for example) while old favorites such as pepperoni pizza and spicy chicken returned to their glory. There were five tables that were reserved for seniors and in that same area the new jukebox was placed. The jukebox was a gift from the senior class and for a dollar one could choose to play 3 songs. New music was added constantly according to what students wanted; the range of music went anywhere from Nelly to System of a Down. Pretzels were also available for purchase every day; the two choices of salted and cheese salted seemed to be the most popular.

French

Ms. Kasch started teaching at Wright City's first ever French class this school year. The students learned the basics of the French language as well as the culture. Students were able to listen to music, read books and watch movies that Ms. Kasch brought back from France.

After reading the play Cyrano de Bergerac, Ms. Kasch organized a field trip to the St. Louis theater for her students. The students then made plays of their own and performed them in front of the class. A few students even performed a chant at the homecoming pep assembly. The class celebrated holidays, learned about historical monuments, and even cuisine.

When the class finished their chapter about cuisine Ms. Kasch planned another field trip to St. Louis, only this time it was to a French restaurant. There students had to interact with their waiter in French.

Many students recieved a pen pal from France to keep in touch with over the summer and inhance their vocabulary.

French went over well with Wright City students and many have signed up for French II. Over all its was a big success and lots of fun!

¡Hola! Bienvenidos a la patina de Español.

Students in all three levels of Señora Rodriguez's classes were immersed in Hispanic culture this year. Spanish I students had fun learning the basics of the language through puppet shows and skits. Students in Spanish II visited the St. Louis Art Museum to study the art of ancient Hispanic cultures. The members of Spanish III learned about modern day Spanish culture through song, lip-synching to their favorite tunes in Spanish. All the Spanish students celebrated traditional holidays, including the Day of the Dead and Cinco de Mayo.

On one sunny afternoon, the 2004 Wildcat Pride Marching Band and Color Guard was given a huge opportunity. They were invited to the 69th annual SBC Cotton Bowl Classic. Was this band ready to pull off a bowl game? Were Wright City's Marching Wildcats and auxiliary dedicated enough to put the time in for preparing and learning to be able to compete in this major competition?

This was yet to be seen. As far as the regular season competitions and football games, it seemed that maybe they had taken on a challenge too great. The color guard worked after school, during school, and they took time out of their personal lives. They sacrificed time and energy, and they pushed themselves to the limit. Was this going to be worth it?

As the time for the Cotton Bowl competition crept up, there were last minute adjustments, there were changes in the show for the band and the color guard just had to step up, take charge and make it work!

The girls went down to Dallas, Texas and had a blast! They competed hard and enjoyed doing it. The band ended up with five awards, including Grand Champion in parade. In all the band's liqelight it seemed as though the color guard wasn't being appreciated.

After the results came in, however, the color guard was awarded with the outstanding guard trophy. The names of all the girls were put on a plaque that was hung in the trophy case for everyone to see the fruit of their labor. Mrs. Jones led them through thick and thin and it paid off. The color guard of 2004-2005 will long be remembered!

Volleyball may have had its best season so far. All the teams showed great enthusiasm through out the season. The freshman have greatly improved. The J.V. team had it rough in the beginning but pulled through with hard work and determination. The varsity team had an amazing season, breaking old records and meeting all their goals. The girls were undefeated at home and won EMO Championship, ending the season with a 15-12 record. The girls set a new standard for Wright City Volleyball.

Growing as A TEAM

When two teams with this much aggression meet, you get a great football game. The South Callaway Bulldogs always come with something to prove and this time we made them leave with a good impression of the Wright City Wildcats!

On with the (Cheerleading) Show!

The 2004 football cheerleading squad had a great year. The team consisted of eight girls: senior captain Brooke Porter, seniors Cassy Mayfield and Kortnie Huddleston, junior and co-captain Staci Beale, sophomore Michelle Marchand, and freshmen Erica Wehweier, Kionie Phung, Jill Foster, and Darcy Porter.

Although many people don't take cheerleading seriously, these eight girls do. They had to overcome many obstacles and limitations to perform as well as they did. Being such a small squad, the girls learned how vital it is to get along in order to get things done. The football season gave the veterans a chance to build the underclassmen's skills and knowledge. "We love our freshmen," said Kortnie Huddleston. "We pushed them really hard and they never gave up. Their determination surprised us all. I think they even surprised themselves sometimes."

Fans could always look down and see the girls on the sidelines no matter what the circumstances. The cheerleaders put on their best for every game; it didn't matter how well the team was doing or how horrible the weather was. As long as the football players were playing, the cheerleaders kept cheering.

Lady Wildcats came together for a great performance.

... shining at the plate

... and shooting for the fence

By: Monica Eads and Jennifer Korte

The Lady Wildcats softball team made a good showing this year with a final season record of 20-5 and took home second in districts. They did this with the assistance of six freshmen, six sophomores, three juniors, and four seniors. "We weren't just good but cute," Mr. Burdett explained, laughing.

Not only did they bring home second in districts but also had three first team players, one second team player, and one honorable mention player for the district. They also accomplished second in the Elsberry tournament and were champs of the Paris tournament.

As captain, Nikki Shortt set a good example for the team. Brittany Leonard pitched a season of 14-4. The team included five different players who hit above 500. The team had a lot of young talent and only needs to replace three starters next year. The only thing they had a problem with was their defense; however, they made up for it with their offensive ability.

2005 Track Stars

by Brittany Hunn

The 2005 track team had an extraordinary year. "We did really, really well this year," says junior runner Jacob Sherry. The team has won several trophies. "We have talent and determination; what else do we need?" said manager Whitney Cox. Her intuition showed when track went to state this spring. Of the team, four students went to state competition. Congratulations to senior Kortnie Huddleston, juniors Cassie Williams and Larry Paul, and freshman Megan Kowalik. Kortnie took fifth place in the 100 meter hurdles, while Cassie participated in long jump to get fourteenth place. Larry took tenth in the 800 meter run, third in the one-mile, and second in the two-mile. Megan Kowalik did great for her first time at state, with third place in both the 300 meter hurdles and the one-mile, and fifth place in the two-mile.

The team has had fun competing this year. Relays became a favorite for cheering on teammates, and the team especially had fun at the Banana Relays at Wentzville Timberland. For these relays, all athletes competed in an event that they had never tried before on a regular basis. The teams were coed, so teammates handed off the baton in an alternating boy/girl pattern. The team did a lot of cheering for sophomore Waymond Humphill to eat his banana during the final race.

DANCE, DANCE, REVOLUTION

This year dance team made history by having boys participate. They worked VERY hard practicing routines, never settling for 2nd best. This was proven at St. Charles Classic with a 1st place in #1P-#1OP, and second in DANCE.

My proudest moment was watching Tyron accept a full scholarship to Lindenwood University in dance.

I can hardly wait to see what's in store for next year. It's a VERY exciting time to be a part of the W.C.#.S. Dancin' Cats!

2005 Graduation We Are Finally Free!!!

By: Katie Joyce and Eddio Walker

(Left) Mrs. Sachs opens a "gift" from the seniors. In their only senior prank, members of the senior class had secretly taken a toy xylophone and another noise maker that Mrs. Sachs had used to call attention to the announcements over the intercom. Other students and staff who wondered what had happened to these items found out when the class returned them to Mrs. Sachs at graduation! (Far left) LeighAnn Kempffer is named salutatorian and Zac Box was named valedictorian. (Left) Chris Hanff is also happy about getting his diploma.
