HOW WE PLAY THE GAME OF LIFE

The way we go throughout our lives day to day is, in fact, very similar to how we play a game. Just like in life, there are important decisions to be made, chances to be taken, goals to be gained, and obstacles to be overcome. Everyone has a different strategy refined over time and it seems nothing is ever certain due to the infinite possibilities like in the roll of the dice. Sometimes people can even get the short end of the stick or make a bad call. But as long as you're still in the game, you can always draw a "Get Out of Jail Free" card. So, what is life to you? The stakes have been set, and the pieces have been placed. This is how we played the game at WCHS in 2005-2006.

WEEK!!!

Homecoming Week was full of fun and tons of spirit. Spirit was after all, the theme for Homecoming 2005. Each class showed its school spirit by participating in dress up days.

The assembly Friday consisted of the parade of floats, and the flag football game. Juniors played sophomores and seniors played freshman.

Winners of the "Penny War" for the over all week were seniors. The total amount raised was approximately $248.45.

And the winners of spirit week are: Seniors!

Dress-Up Days over all were great. The days were as follows:

Monday: Pajama Day

Tuesday: Nerd Day

Wednesday: Opposite Day

Thursday: Character Day

Friday: Blue and Gold Day

Spirit Games: Juniors, with 5 touchdowns!

Banner: SENIORS!!!

Float: Sophomores!

Over All Winner: SENIORS!!!

KISSED BY...

The juniors put on a lovely prom at the Trigg Banquet Center on April 1 (no jokes); the theme was "Kissed by a Rose". It was a very beautiful, set up with lots of roses and soft colors. The juniors and seniors danced the night away; well, actually only until midnight because that is when prom ended. In the middle of the event, the DJ announced the 2006 prom king and queen.

The 05-06 King and Queen share a very special moment.

The king of the night was none other than Greg Penrod and the angelic queen was Staci Beal. The king and queen danced to Seal's performance of "Kissed by a Rose." Everyone looked so beautiful; the other court members included Shanon Bote, Shawn Minzes, Andrew Mueller, and Megan Mitchell.

As the upperclassmen entered the Trigg, they were greeted by the lovely Ms. Lucero, the junior class sponsor. After voting for their favorite candidates, it was apparent that it was time to boogie down and make memories. Round tables graced the room around the dance floor. The Trigg provided beverages and snacks to keep the dancers energized, and a special cake to commemorate the occasion.

CHECK OUT THE ARTS!

By Ine H. Digernes

This year there were three art classes: Art 1, 2 and 3. Each class tried different and new projects. Ms. Ruzeker, the art teacher, provided help and taught the eager artists about the world of art, and how to develop their skills.

Art 1 did color circles and basic art projects for beginners, while Art 2 went on to more advanced projects, such as comics and 3D buildings. Art 3 did optical illusions, leaf prints, self-portraits and more.

A lot of exciting projects have been done this year, and all the students enjoyed the new experiences and lessons from Ms. Ruzeker and her skills in arts and crafts.

As the bell rang, students gathered in either the classroom or the shop to listen to the new challenges Mr. Hawk would give them. In the shop was where most of their time was spent as they cut and nailed boards together and made some wonderful creations. In the classroom, the students would use the knowledge that they had learned to take the next step into Woodlab.

Ag. 2 students had their hands full with projects on groups, vegetables, fruits and a state project. Welding learned the safety techniques and how to weld. Horticulture learned about plants, forestry learned about the different forests and national parks, and landscaping learned tricks and different things to do in landscaping. All in all, Ms. Kesler had a full year of different things to teach the students in the Ag. department.

The Band with the Winning Beat

by Brittany Hunn

The Wilcat Pride Marching Band has had an exceptional year. After a second place at Washington and a first in their division in Park Hills, the band headed to Potosi, Missouri to compete in the Bi-State Invitational Marching Competition on October 29.

In parade, the band won first in Class A by nearly twenty points. Overall, the band placed first, beating out much larger schools, including rival Wentzville Timberland by just three points. In field competition, the band again won first place by twenty-two points. Wright City was the only Class A band to place in the top eight (finishing third), however, they won the Grand Champion award. This is the second time the band has been to this competition, and has won the Grand Champion award both times. They also won outstanding music, percussion, guard, and drum major in both parade and field.

The marching band worked hard to bring home many awards and give us yet another outstanding year. Way to go for the Wilcat Pride 2005-2006!

THAT TUNE

By Kristin Kifer

This year the choir participated in many events. They held Christmas and spring concerts and sang at graduation. They also participated in the Conference Choir performance in Winfield, and the District Music Festival in Mexico, Missouri. At that event Kayla Beeny and Svetta Kroutil gave solos, and Kayla Beeny, Svetta Kroutil, and Ashley Amrein performed as a trio. The members this year were-

Baritones: Travis Goebel, Waymond Hemphill, and Jesse Taylor.

Altos: Ashley Amrein, Jennifer Korte, Candace Mueller, Stephanie Taylor, and Krystal Theison.

Sopranos: Kayla Beeny, Ine Digernes, Jackie England, and Svetta Kroutil.

"It's good!" With a win/loss record of 5-5, the Wildcats have made a huge improvement over last year's record of 2-8, including giving state contender Montgomery County a run for their money. The team improved by leaps and bounds: they got better and better every day. Game after game, they continued to try their best and overcome the fears of the field.

The real story of this season started during districts when the Wildcats beat the Orchard Farm Eagles 27-20 and made an impression on many on-lookers. After beating both Lutheran St. Charles and Winfield by 9 and 14 points respectively, the team was rewarded by an invitation to the state play-offs.

This was an accomplishment that had not yet been achieved by a Wright City football team, ever! But what lay ahead was one of the best teams in the state for their first play-off game. Cardinal Ritter won the game, but Wright City won respect from the school and the community. What's next? The 06- season will tell soon enough.

The 2005-2006 cheerleading squads at Wright City had an amazing year. At camp alone, the varsity team came home with Top Team, best overall at camp. Along with a "Tierkie" award, the varsity received a bid to nationals, an invitation to cheer at the Hula Bowl or Orange Bowl in winter 2005 as a reward for winning Top Team. The squad had to decline, but was still greatly honored. Among the many squad awards, Staci Beale, Kaitlyn Pieper, Greg Penrod and Waymond Hemphill were named All American Cheerleaders.

The start of the girls' basketball season was rough. With a new coach in tow, they had many new things to learn, but once they got used to her they really took off. The girls' record was nineteen wins to eight losses. Overall the girls' basketball team had a superb season. Throughout the year, the team really learned how to work with each other. They achieved goals that they had set for themselves and came away from the season with a district championship for the first time since 1989.

X-TREME SOFTBALL

PLAY BALL!

By Whitney Johnson

"Please rise for the singing of our nation anthem..." The 2005 girls' softball team accomplished many things this year; they defeated many teams and strategized by working well as a team. The softball team won districts, which hadn't been done in 11 years. They went on to sectionals, also taking the victory to go on to regionals. They didn't win regionals, but they did finish the season with a record of 20-8.

Though the softball team lost Coach Burdett, Coach Ross did a great job coaching and teaching the skills and strategies they needed to have in order to have a successful softball season. The Wright City softball team is only losing one player this year, which is a plus, but that one person is a key member of the team. Brittany Leonard was the star pitcher for the softball team. Hopefully the team will hold the standards high and keep up the good work!

Franci Schwartz

Star Pitcher

Brittany Leonard (senior) was a 2005 all-conference, all-district, all-region, and last but not least all-state pick. Brittany moved here from Texas her sophomore year. She decided to join the softball team which was a good idea! Brittany has been the star pitcher since she moved here and was a huge part of the team. She accomplished many things and left a lot of great memories. She added a lot of fun to the team and was there to do her best.

Senior Eliel Malpica hurls

WHEN IT'S GAME TIME,
THESE GUYS REALLY KNOW
HOW TO HAVE A BALL!

They showed that they know how to play baseball, and they did it so well, they finished as CMO Conference, District, and sectional champs!

The eleven seniors on this team have helped to turn the program around, going one step farther than 2005, when they were defeated in the sectional game. In 2006, Blair Oaks, the eventual Class 2 State winner, ended the season for the Wildcats in the quarterfinals.

Here's how Wright City PLAYS BALL!

CLASS OF 2006 FREE AT LAST

By Erin McNeill and Katie Joyce

The WCHS Class of 2006 looks ahead to their bright futures.

Salutatorian Erin McNeill advises her class to follow their dreams and "use good judgement".

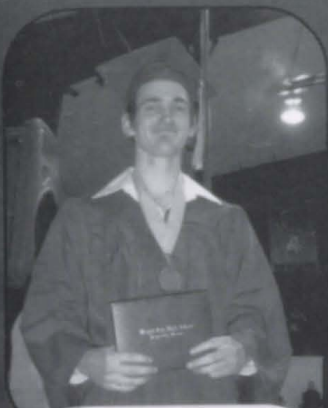

Valedictorian Shanon Bote quotes "Finding Nemo", telling everyone to "just keep swimming".
