BARNWARMINGBARNWA

Barnwarming op

Patsy Lindsey, Brenda Meyer, Theresa Smith, and Rosalie Stanek joined in this year's fun as they competed for the 1973-74 FFA Sweetheart. The retiring Queen, Cindy Hunziker, crowned Brenda Meyer FFA Sweetheart.

The fun began at 8:00 p.m. with dancing to the music of Clique. Entrance to the dance was through the traditional 30-foot tunnel which was full of twists, turns, and slides. Rustic decorations of hay, baled and loose, created the atmosphere and served as tables and chairs. To carry out the informal mood, donuts and cider were served.

SENIORPLAYSENIORPL

Senior play:

One of the highlights of the 1974 school year was the Senior Play, "Our Miss Brooks." On May 2 and 3, twenty amateur performers assumed the roles of teachers, administrators, and students in a typical classroom setting.

The three-act comedy displayed the problems of an English teacher trying in vain to put on a play. The teacher, Miss Brooks (Cindy Hunziker), strived throughout the play to gain her right to the use of the gym. On the other hand, Hugo Longacer (Sam Park), the athletic director, was working to keep his athletes and at the same time keep out of the marriage trap set by Miss Brooks. Added to the problems of being a principal, Mr. Wadsworth (Leon Wilding) had a noisy school board president (Lynne Warren). All the actors performed at their best to make the entire play a hilarious antic leaving the audience in fits of laughter.

Spring dance,

Chuck "The Chucker" from KSLQ Radio spun the records at the annual Spring Dance sponsored by the Student Council. The kids did a variety of swinging and swaying to the beat of the music. The pictures of the super heroes that lined the walls gave a super feeling to the dancers.

King Kent Buescher and Queen Debbie Eversmeyer, both seniors, held court over the night's festivities. Freshmen attendents were Wendy Lawson and Mike Larenson. Sophomore attendants were Mary Rodriquez and Tim Brown. Junior attendents were Theresa Smith and Brian Ostmann.

GAA IN ACTION

Girl's Athletic Association means . . .

Led by advisor Miss Paula Zeller, G.A.A. is one of the most active clubs in the school. Members participate in moneymaking activities, sponsor an annual play-day between students and faculty, and participate in intramural and extramural sports from softball, basketball, volleyball, track and field, and gymnastics to archery. At the end of each year a Best All-Around Athlete is nominated, a prized honor to the winner.

and softball, and gymnastics; future sports include tennis and bowling.

BASKETBALL

Varsity basketball had a highly respectable year with a record of 14 wins and 13 loses. At least seven of the latter games were lost by three points or under.

Wildcats played some of their best basketball in tournament play. The Wildcats captured second place in the Wentzville Tourney beating Jennings and Zumwalt and finally losing to Wentzville. In the Troy Tourney the Wildcats won from Hannibal then lost to Troy and Clopton. In the Zumwalt Tourney Wildcats won over Zumwalt then lost to Wentzville and Winfield.

Max Mittler was the high scorer for the year with an average of 25.2 a game. Jim Logan was high rebounder with an 11.8 average.

Wildcats look ahead to another winning year — they will lose only two seniors.

J.V. Wildcats close season with 10-2 record

Coach Sam Potter's junior varsity Wildcats ended a hard season with a final record of twelve loses and ten wins. With eight players on the team never having played high school basketball, the j.v. Wildcats still won second place in their own Wright City Tournament but lost for consolation in the St. Francis Borgia Tourney.

Wildcat offense was led by Center Jeff Cook and Forward Kelly Williams with total point averages per game of 11.4 and 11.9 respectively. Jeff also took high rebounder honors with 10.4 per game average.

J.H. SPORTS

Junior high students were again involved in the athletic program this year as they took part in three areas. Basketball remained the major interest as the boys gained new experiences and training for the future years of play. The 7th grade team had a disappointing season with one win and six losses. The 8th grade team did better with a final record of six wins and eight losses.

The two new sports added this year were track and wrestling. In track, the 7th grade won 2nd place in the 440 relay at Warrenton. Bob Lewis won 2nd in the 440 dash. Don Brandes won 1st place in the 330 dash at Wentzville. The wrestling team has not yet competed in extramural scrimmages, but they are practicing now for competition next year.

Wrestling Team: M. Frye, K. Lashley, L. Penrod, R. Walter, G. Stroyan, and T. Gummersheimer.

Track Team, ROW ONE: W. Brandt, K. Smith, M. Lowrey, D. Redmon, and B. Lewis. ROW TWO: L. Bishop, P. Love, G.W. Washington, E. Hite, D. Chand-

BASEBALL

The baseball team began their second season joining Winfield, St. Johns, St. Dominic, and Valley Park on the conference schedule.

More experienced players this year gave the team their record of three wins over St. Johns, Troy, and Silex and six losses with over half the season finished. Pitching and hitting remain strengths of the team while fielding still presents some problems with too many errors per game.

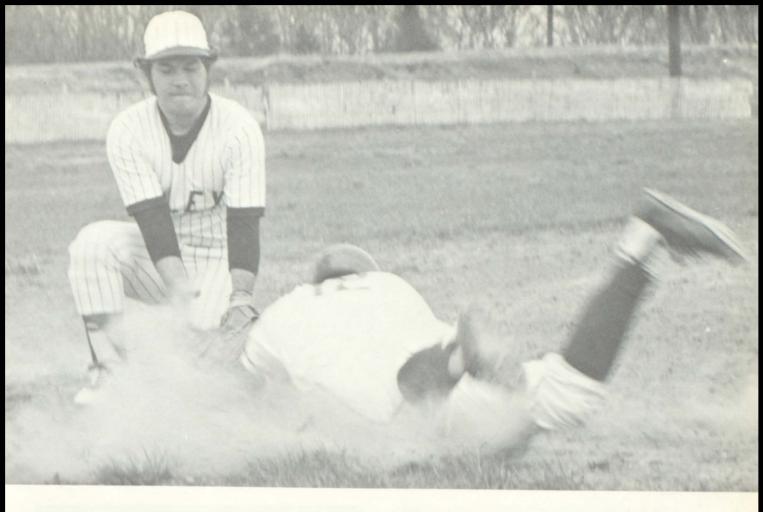

Three freshmen added their skills to last year's team. Jeff Cook and Larry Pettig are new to the school team but have had experience in Khory League. Rick Atterbury transferred from St. Charles where he had played baseball before.

TRACK

Individuality, determination, discipline, and hard work are just a few of the elements that accompany a successful track team.

Eight boys made up this year's team--five of them were also on the cross-country team. Despite frequent injuries, the team members did perform fairly well. Last fall the cross-country team took 3rd in conference. Eric Park won 1st in the home meet against St. Dominic.

On the track team and only about half-way through the year's schedule, Roland Sims took two 1st places in the 440 dash. David Kauble is working on breaking the two mile school record of 11 min., 8 sec. So far he's been 3 sec. off.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Getting involved was one of the key notes for this year's Student Council. Following through with this theme, Student Council members formed a new constitution.

Council President Jeanne Symes and Vice President Tom Solt attended the Missouri Association of Student Council workshop, a leadership camp at Kemper Military Academy during the summer. Council members also planned to attend the spring convention in Sikeston.

Other activities included their annual candy-selling project, sponsoring two school dances, and the Homecoming '74

Bonfire.

NHS

Membership in the National Honor Society is a privilege and distinction. All members of the society have high academic achievements and superior qualities of leadership, service, and character. The 1974 NHS consists of eleven fully qualified members. In April, at the annual induction ceremony, seven provisional members were officially added to the organization.

The NHS members wished to show appreciation for the honor bestowed upon them. As a contribution to the school community, the society erected a sign of direction to the high school. Also NHS members donated blood to the community

Blood Bank.

The members of the Wright City Chapter of the National Honor Society value highly the special rights and favors granted to them. They wish for many future students the same fullfilling experiences.

ECHO STAFF

Fun, laughter, headaches, frustration, ideas, and creativity all were a part of the production of the '74 Echo. The yearbook staff spent hours at the task of capturing the uniqueness of 1973-1974 at WCHS.

Changing tradition, using different colors to support theme, the yearbook staff hoped to show how unique but vitally important faculty, activities, and organizations were to the student's life.

TALES STAFF

Better coverage of news and events at WCHS served as the main goal for the '73-'74 "Wildcat Tales" newspaper staff. The staff published the paper bi-monthly in the Warrenton Banner.

Hours of arduous work were spent by students in interviewing and writing copy. Proofreading, editing, writing headlines, and lay-out was also handled by members of the class.

GAA

This year was the second year for the Girls Athletic Association. It has expanded its interest in girls' sports throughout the high school and junior high. The club has had many money-making projects and has made two of them annual projects. These are the selling of Halloween candy within the school and the selling of Homecoming mums for the basketball Homecoming. These projects helped purchase schuffle board equipment and GAA basketball uniforms and will be applied toward a trampoline and floor mats.

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of girls who are striving for the betterment of home and family life. Their goals are to find themselves and their purpose, then to help others.

The highlight of the organization's year was preparing for the Christmas Prom. And all effort proved the Christmas Prom to be a memorable event.

But FHA is not only fun, to be truly successful, it must have its share of work. The group sold fruit cakes which profitted them $200.00. The girls worked hard to complete their state projects, and this is what made the 73-74 year successful.

FFA

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of a membership that includes young people in all the states of the Union. An added attraction to the Wright City chapter this year was the initiation of three girls.

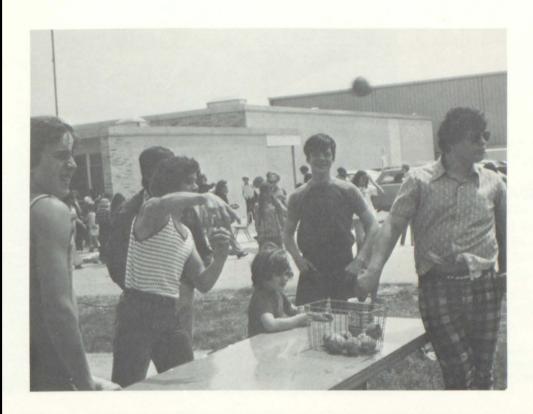

FFA members participated in judging events at District Contest in Kirksville and State Competition. The best results were from Dennis Meyer who took a I rating in Ag. Mechanics and Lou Ann Hartnagel who took a I rating in Creed Speaking.

The FFA chapter sponsored the annual Barnwarming, sold popcorn and coke at basketball games, participated in the PTA Fun Day, and concluded the year's activities with the Annual Parent-Member Banguet.

SDA

This year begins the second successful year of the Speech and Dramatic Arts Club.

Being a member of SDA involves taking part in activities in communicative skills and eventually being able to present talents in the dramatic field.

Major plans for this school year include several one act plays and the Senior Play "Our Miss Brooks".

MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

Learning is the key to all organizations in the music department. During the 1973-74 year, members of all groups found the horizon of music broadened. They discovered new techniques, new music, and new notes.

niques, new music, and new notes.
In competition, WCHS music students won several awards. Bruce Bote took a I rating at district and state competition for a tenor sax solo. ### ART CLUB

In its first year at WCHS, the Art Club was formed to explore media and techniques not used in the classroom. The club also tries to further develop creativity on an individual basis and broaden the scope of knowledge of the art world.

Under the direction of Ms. Scheeter the Art Club sponsored the annual spirit chain competition before Homecoming and held numerous bake sales to earn money for print-making supplies. One project for 1975 includes buying textilings to print t-shirts that will be sale items to WCHS students.

CHEERLEADERS

WCHS became the first school in the District in recent years to integrate the other half of the student body as three male cheerleaders joined the squad to add some masculine drive.

Comment: "Student apathy is a major problem at WCHS. It's most evident in the cheering section at sports events. It's most important in the classroom when it interferes in the educational process."

POM-PON TEAM

Pom-pon girls performed during varsity half-time at all home basketball games. As Bobby Gentry and Billy Niemann played drums the girls marched in step. They practiced many hard hours, even over vacation, to work up a different routine for every game. Most important to the girls was their dance routine which they performed at Homecoming and regionals.

During their free time, the girls sold ball-point pens to pay for their new plastic pom-pons.

Academics

ADMINISTRATION

Wright City High School has expanded its educational environment due to the responsible administration of the Board of Education. The governing action of the school board is a necessity to the smooth operation and efficiency of the entire school system. The board's firm and relevant guidance aids the faculty and students to greater learning achievement, individual expression, and community accomplishment.

Working more closely with everyday affairs of school are Superintendent Fraser Small and Principal Don Jones. Both worked throughout the year to fuse the ideas of administration and students. This fusion results in a smooth-running center for learning.

Comment: "Educational responsibility is the concern of the teacher.

The educational climate is the concern of the administrator. The appearance of circumstances determines the climate."

FACULTY

The WCHS faculty consists of instructors with many varied and contrasting qualifications. These qualifications have been integrated to provide a comprehensive school curriculum enhanced by individual and accomplished teaching methods.

CUSTODIANS

Keeping the school clean and in good repair was a major task for WCHS custodians. With at least one person on duty all day joined by four more plus student help, the job seems almost over-powering. The custodians this year spent long hours covering the two buildings at high school.

COOKS, BUS DRIVERS

Keeping the wheels in motion kept WCHS bus drivers busy this year. Besides the daily bus runs, these people had field trips and all away athletic events to drive.

The cooks too contributed to a smoothly running system as they filled 350 students with a hot lunch every day, five days a week.

GRADUATION

"What a Wonderful World!" was the theme of the 1974 graduation commencement. The graduates of '74 march into society with confidence, enthusiasm, and faith that the world in which they are to live and work is, for the most part, a wonderful world. They believe that the looning problems that threaten the peace and progress of the world shall be solved and with God's help, man shall prevail.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

On May 7, WCHS revised an old tradition by having the Awards Assembly at night. The purpose of the program was to show recognition of students who have shown outstanding ability in scholarship, leadership, and performance during the 1973-74 school year.

Top rated Kirksville and Mexico contestants, club officers, class officers all received awards. The top students scholastically from each class received recognition. Two students from each class also received citizenship awards.

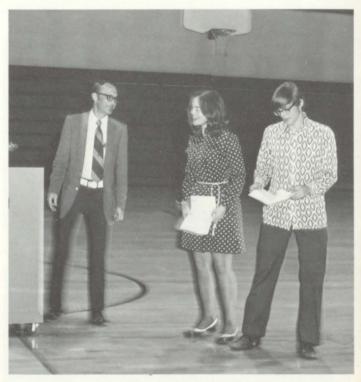

Besides group awards, special recognition went to students in several areas. Diane Hollenbeck, Keith Smith, Laura Bote, Tony Rowan, and Dan Maestas received special awards in English. Lisa Strong and Karen Wilmsmeyer received awards for their performance in the spelling bee. Ben Corbett, Julius Ball, Bruce Bote, and Jeanne Symes received special recognition in music.

In art, John Helvey won an award for the most improved artist. In publications, Lynne Warren and Rosie Stanek received special recognition for their work on the yearbook staff and Diane Niemann received an award for her work on the newspaper staff. Dianne also received the Betty Crocker Award in the field of home economics.

In the field of athletics, Sam Park took the sportsmanship award, Max Mittler took the free throw award, and Jim Logan took the rebound award and the Battling Wildcat award. Gary Warren received recognition for the most valuable player in junior high basketball. Bobby Lewis received an award for his work in track. Matt Lowry won an award for 110% effort. The most athletic girl went to Janice Runyan.

Several seniors were also presented various awards during the assembly. Sam Park and Jeanne Symes won the "I Dare You" award. Certificates were also given to Sam Park, Randy Wright, Lynne Warren, Rosie Stanek, Dianne Niemann, and Tyrone Woolfolk who were nominees for the most outstanding senior award.

End of the year brought recognition to some frazzled students . . .

FFA pins. Members of the cross-country team receive their letters. Randy Wright took his award for work on Student Council. John Helvey receives a gift for being the most improved artist. Bruce Bote won an award for his I rating at district and state contest in music.

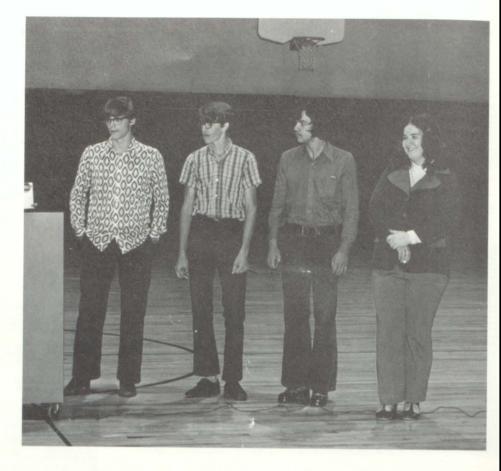

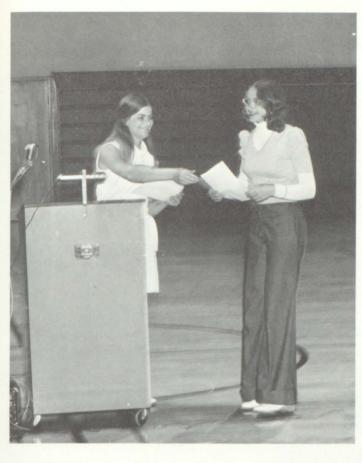

CLOCKWISE FROM RIGHT: Members of the newspaper staff receive awards for their ratings at contest. Elaine Eversmeyer took her award for her work as a junior high pompon girl. Julius Ball received an award for his performance at a jazz festival. Keith Smith took an award for his ability in junior high English. Bobby Lewis receives a basketball and track letter. Elaine Eckhoff won an award for her work as pianist for band and chorus. Jeanne Symes won her award for her work in music. Janice Runyan took her award as outstanding girl athlete in GAA.

Comment: it's amazing that so few students could win so much.
